So far it still works quite well on HD resolution timelines even using both the FilmConvert OFX Plugin and the Neat Video OFX Plugin. This isn't a problem in the beginning, but if you keep using it, you'll see that it doesn't scale to 1080p and below, which would be a disaster for me. I tried editing the setting to increase the video resolution, but it always reverted back to the original resolution, not what you wanted. It seems strange to me because I can't remember the first time
