LillywhiteQ: Woocommerce: Authorise Payments Using Stripe
I've been attempting to use stripe.js to facilitate authorisations of individual client payments using the woocommerce REST API, and I've made good progress using the woocommerce documentation for payments. But as I've been unsuccessful with the stripe.js docs, I am having to assume that woocommerce uses the same method for authorising payments, which should be revealed somewhere in the code.
So there is a proof of concept code for authorising payments
